

Pocket Full of Zen

I got a pocket full of zen
Zen - zen ~ "zen'sitivity"
Emotional intelligence blesses my abilities.
When you DON'T comprehend:
Things are the way they are;
When you DO comprehend:
Is the same, things are still the way they are.
Some of them think they mastered their mind,
but instead,
They have been mastered {enslaved} by their own mind.
Slaves of their imagination
Believing everything we think = the worse vice Minds manipulated by the media
Masses are slaves of their propaganda.
Just like the nazis in the 2nd world war
Ego obesity = 3rd world war.
Uniforms of brutality killing without penalty
Nobody saw, because the Lakers were playing the Knicks.
TV keeping minds hypnotized
but at the end,
The truth always rises!

Everyday is just a new evolution
A new chance to find what we're here for...
A new spirit change the rhythm of my bongo
A new way to plant flowers on my limbo.
Rest in peace all the people that nobody knew...
Like those, who died fighting in the Congo.
In the meantime we keep the vibe alive;
If we are 16 ! And, 8 pieces in the pie ?...
That means: Everybody gets half of a slice.
They telling me now that I need more exercise
So I have to fight my ego, to listen to their advice
To defeat the part of my that wants to die
Since I was little, that has been part of history
Since the pyramids my spirits live in anarchy;
Sometimes It feels like...
I was born in the wrong time
But the creation never wrong,
So we survived!
