

Take me Away

Just take me away...

Take me Away, Just take me away,
Next to where the sky meets the ocean
Where we communicate with not language
Where we can't measure the distance anymore;
Take me Away... Just take me away!

Take me away,
increasingly far away,
So far beyond any way;
There, where we ALL can see
We're all just the same ONE thing;
Just like the moon

Seen from the earth is ONE piece,
From the moon
The earth is also seeing as ONE piece

So...
Why is it so difficult to just dance?
With the divine rhythm of time,
letting the obsession beyond resting in peace
while letting that peace resting inside finally free.
Fighting a subliminally predesigned war
that nobody is going to win.
Why? ⇔ Because?
We ALL got the same DESTINY... ☞ DEATH

Now...
Am just gonna close my eyes
Let you take me away
Increasingly far away
drastically away from my Old Ways
but, All-Ways [Always...]
Will be back in the base
I seen your face with my faith in the basics.
Plus... you wanna know what is crazy?
seeing the light throughout the darkness of thy tunnel
Thank you to the inside candle awoken by the crisis;
But, is ok...
Is never late to appreciate
The rhythm of time,
Forever divine!

We ALL got the same DESTINY... ☞ DEATH
